The former orders of Govt were not obtained by the late Offg Inspector General (as perhaps should have been done) for the abolition of the Bangalore Central Training School, nor was the fact of such abolition intimated to Govt, except casually in reply to a request of mine. The G.O. of 14th July 1902 merely desires to introduce any new changes during the current year; it has been wrongly quoted by the late Offg Inspector General as conclusive of the abolition of an existing institution.

As the matter is one that requires some notice in the Police Deptt, these papers are first submitted to the Dewan. May the present I.G. be asked whether the School should be continued or may be closed?

Establishment of the Police Training School at Bangalore

Note.

The Inspector General of Police V.P. Madhava Rao, found during tours of inspection that the arrangem that existed for recruiting the upper of the Subordinate Police Service were fo satisfactory. In the majority of cases who were promoted from the ranks had not received proper training in law and Drill, and who could not h a gun properly, occupied the responsible of Jamadars and Inspectors. are unable to read and write and had depend upon their subordinates to get cahayats drawn up and special diaries written With a view to raise the tone of the service generally and to secure better results as regards prevention and detection of crime, he submitted for the consideration of Government scheme for the opening of a class in connection with the existing Police School at Bangalore for the training of candidates for Subordinate Police Service. It was proposed to train the candidates that were admitted in the following subjects for a period six months, at the end of which they would examined by a Board of Examiners and certificates would be granted to the passed candidates :—

1. Penal Code
2. Criminal Procedure Code
3. Evidence Act.
4. Police Rules and Circulars
5. Drilling + Shooting
6. Practical work of a station House offi

This (i.e. the Head Quarter Police School is stated in ¶ no 87 to have been in existence from 1877. [illegible] training constables and [illegible] for Station House Officers' duties.

[To these, were added subsequently Surveying, Geometrical Drawing, Photography, Ambulance and Equitation.]

He proposed to utilize the services of the Head Quarter School Inspector for the new class and requested sanction to the entertainment of an Extra Jemadar on Rs 20+8+5 for instructing the Constables & Duffedars.

Government in generally approving of the scheme proposed by the Inspector General, observed that in future, nominations to the ranks of Jemadars and Inspectors might be made from the list of candidates who had passed from the above school except in the case of men already in the Force who had not put in a service of not less than 3 years and who on grounds of meritorious service might be recommended for promotion (Vide Govt Proceedings No. 3146-J.753-92 dated 15th [illegible] 1892)

The class under the new scheme was opened in November 1892. In reopening the class next year, the Inspector General observed that advantage would be taken that time
by giving a good training to competent men who were in the service and that 4 men (at the rate of 3 for each district)
would be selected at a time for the purpose and requested the sanction of Govt for the disbursement of their pay minus the horse allowance to such men while under training and for the payment of Rs 15 X the pay of a last grade firman to their locum tenens during their absence. The extra cost amounted to Rs 2160, which was sanctioned; it was also ordered that a similar charge might be provided for in the Budget of the next two years, during which it was hoped that a proper training would have been given to all deserving men in the force. (Govt Pro: No. 9816-25
dated 21st December 1891 J 753-92

X Afterwards increased to Rs 20 (+ 5 horse allowance) vide xi no 68.

This period was extended by another two years commencing from 1st July 1896 as it was reported that it was not found possible to pass through the Training School all the Inspectors and Jemadars in the State fit to receive instruction and that only a small sum had been spent out of the grant of Rs 7920 sanctioned for the purpose (Vide Govt Pro: No. 318-9 / J.753-92 dated 7th July 1896). A further extension was granted up to 15th November 1899 in Govt Proceedings No. 12428-29 dated 1st May 1899.

On the opening of the new District Schools in 1892 at Bangalore, Mysore, Hassan, Shimoga, Tumkur & Chitaldrug the lower classes in the Maharaja's School for Boys at Bangalore were abolished and the School was maintained strictly for training recruits for the Police Force. Again when the Inspector General recommended the reopening of the class for the training of Jemadars & Inspectors with effect from 15th March 1900, the Government called upon him to furnish them with information as to how many persons were selected for training nd how many of the trained were em-loyed as Inspectors and Jemadars and ested that the reopening of the school

e defered till 1st July 1900 pending further nsideration of the scheme. In reply the spector General furnished the (x) required information (1) No. 83.
nd stated that the School was established
s a permanent institution for the training recruits that desired to get into the Police service
school, that subsequently as it was thought xpedient to admit to the school deserving plicants already in the service who wished take advantage of it, Govt. sanctioned a m of Rs 7920 for the payment of locum tenes during their absence & that owing to he exigencies of the service it was not considered desirable to draw 3 Police officers
om each district as originally intended, nd requested therefore that sanction might be accorded to the opening of the school from the 15th March 1900 and to the continuance of the benefit of Gr. B Order of 1893 to deserving Police officers in the service for two years as it would involve no extra cost to Government.

This was sanctioned in Govt.

S No-84 Pro: No: 10182·3 / 1001 dated 9th March 1900 as the Inspector General was authorized to appropriate the unexpended balance out of Rs 7920 for the next term and one after it for the purpose of completing the training of men for whose benefit the order of 21st December 1893 had been passed.

The period sanctioned in the above proceedings expired by the End of Calendar Year 1901. No report was made by the Inspector General as to whether the training

all deserving men in the State has been mpleted.

Meanwhile on the 26th July 1902, the st Councillor made the following enquiry:— (S No 85

"Is the Central Police Training
chool at Bangalore still in ~~exis~~ existence.
If it was abolished, when was it abolished
nd under what circumstances?"

Mr B. K. Venkatavardhiengar, Offg.
nspector General of Police, who was asked emi-officially to report on the matter, stated his letter No. 463/29 dated 29th July 1902, (S No-87)
at the school was sanctioned as a mporary measure in addition to the chools at the District Head Quarters (viz
ore, Hassan, Shimoga, Kadur, Chitalog and Bangalore) and that the period
which it had been sanctioned in Govt.
r No. 10182-3-J1001 dated 9th March 1900

having expired on 31st December 1901, it was abolished with effect from 1st January 1902. He further stated that he had recommended the retention of the said Central training School and the abolition of District Schools but that the Govt in their order No. 639 x / 967 dated 14th July 1902 were pleased to decide that no change was called for.

[The Offg. Inspector General ~~is not correct~~ in stating that the Head Quarter School was sanctioned as a ~~temp~~ temporary measure in addition to District Schools. The Head Quarter Police Training School has been in existence from the year 1877. It was first intended for the training of constables and Duffedars. In 1892 another class was opened for the training of recruits for the upper ranks of the Subordinate

Police Service, under Govt. orders of 25th August 1892. On the opening of a new District School at Bangalore, under the orders of Govt. Pro: No. 7395-6 / 9849 dated 28th December 1897, the lower class was abolished (vide para 3 of Mr. Rangaswamiengar's letter No. C-30 dated 7th March 1900) and the School was maintained purely for training recruits & men in service for higher grades. Thus there have been two Schools, one for the training of Constables at Bangalore, and Duffedars & the other for the training of recruits & men in service for posts of Jemadars & Inspectors.]

Asstt Secretary's remarks.

The formal orders of Govt were not obtained by the late offg. Inspector General (as perhaps should have been done) for the abolition of the Bangalore Central Training School on the expiry of the period for which it was continued; nor was the fact of such abolition intimated to Govt. except casually in reply to a recent D.O. enquiry of mine. The Govt. order of 14th July 1902 merely declined to introduce any new change during the current year; it has been wrongly quoted by the late Offg. Inspector General as countenancing the abolition of an existing institution.

1900 to the opening of the class for two terms with a view to all the deserving men already in the Force being trained. It was accordingly opened and Courses of training extending over 8 months were given in the years 1900 and 1901 and the School was closed by the officiating Inspector General of Police Mr. S. K. Venkatavaradiengar. from 1st January 1902, who submitted a proposal for the abolition of all the existing District Police Schools and the opening of a Central Police School at Bangalore instead. The Government were not however disposed to introduce any change in respect of the matter. (Vide Government Proceedings No. $\frac{639}{J67}$ of the 14th July 1902).

7- It will be seen from the entire Correspondence on the Subject that the Head Quarter Police Training School with with an establishment of 1 Inspector and 2 drill Instructors, was in existence from the year 1877 and was intended as a permanent institution for the training of recruits and latterly of deserving Police Officers already in the Force. Further, the Government were pleased to order the disbursement of full pay of such Officers while under training in the School and the payment of allowances to the substitutes employed in their places at the rate of Rupees 20/- each per mensem and provided for this purpose a Sum of Rupees 7920/- (vide Government Proceedings No. $\frac{9816-25}{J.F.\ 53\cdot 92}$ of the 21st December 1893 as also S.N. Out of this amount, a Sum of Rupees 4204-12-6 remained unspent at the beginning of the year 1900 as already reported in this office letter No. $\frac{1781}{234}$ of the 30th January 1900.

The Concession afforded by Government.

Government regarding the remaining Inspectors and Jamedars being given the benefit of training in the School, has not been fully availed of as, owing to the exigencies of Service and the prevalence of Plague in Some parts of the Province, the withdrawal of Police Officers from Talukas was not considered desirable. The amount, however, still remains unspent and may well be utilized hereafter for the purpose. The entertainment of men passed from the Training School will improve the working of the Police to a great extent, and it is of utmost importance that recruits who are qualified by education and respectability of character and who are of good physique, should be selected and trained for employment in the Subordinate Grades. I propose, therefore, to re-open the School with effect from the 10th January 1903 and the Course will, as usual, extend over a period of 8 months.

Inspectors

inspectors and Jamedars and, I may add, Huffedars, as are young and efficient and a re still remaining untrained, will be Selecte
s usual for undergoing training in the chool and Such of the duly qualified recruits ill also be admitted into the School and charged fee of Rupees 2/- each per mensem and the umber of Such admissions will thus be imited. I Shall make a further report as o the officers and recruits admitted into he School and Submit proposals for the anction to the extra cost of substitutes eing met from the unspent balance referred o above.

* Among those who are to be trained
- future for advancement in the Police epartment, I have advisedly included the Huffedars who bear the brunt of the work s will be Seen from the last Administration Report which Shows that nearly 41 per Cent
f the Cases have been investigated by them.
They are virtually, though not in name, the

Station

Station House Officers and unless we Secure the Services of a better class of men than what we have at present in the Force, it is hopeless to achieve better results in the prevention and detection of crime. I would therefore request that Substitutes for those who may be withdrawn from the Districts for being trained in the School may be granted an allowance of Rupee 2/- per mensem. This arrangement, if approved will go a great way to improve the existing Staff of Daffedars who will in future Consist of only men who have passed out of the School and will prevent indifferent class of people from being appointed to this grade.

5. Under these Circumstances, I beg that the opening of the next term of the Training School may kindly be Sanctioned from the 10th January 1903, as I Consider that by allowing the present State of inaction as regards the training of men in the Force, we will open ourselves to the charge of having adopted a retrograde policy while in the neighbouring British territories So much agitation is made to improve the Status of both the Officers and subordinate Staff. It is time that Govern... by a distinct order, sets at rest once for all and clears the doubt, if any, as regards the permanency of the Institution

I am collecting Statistics as regards the number of Inspectors and Jamedars who are in Service and who had received training in the School and the same will be communicated to Government in due course.

I have the honor to

INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE IN MYSORE.

To

H.V.Hanjundayya Esquire M.A.M.L.

SECRETARY TO THE GOVT. OF MYSORE,
GENERAL AND REVENUE DEPARTMENTS.

Sir,

With reference to your docket No:J.II27 dated 6th February 1903 requesting to be furnished with some additional particulars in connection with my proposal to reopen the Head Quarter Police Training School , I have the honor to state in reply , seriatum to the above , that the reopening of the school does not entail any extra cost beyond what Government have been pleased already to sanction . The subjoined statement shows the establishment sanctioned by Government for the Head Quarter Poli school at different periods , and these sanctions have not been revoked .

etails of stablishment	Pay per mensem	No: and date of Govt: Progs: sanctioning the establishment
) Inspector on Rs:75/ +I5/	Rs: 90/-	7395-6/J.849 dated 28th December I897
) Drill Instructor	Rs: I6/-	〃 〃 〃 〃 〃 〃 〃
) Survey Instructor	Rs: 80/-	Camp No: 372-3 dated I6th June I893
) Photographer	Rs:I00/- (per term)	(Perhaps this amount is susceptible of being reduced to Rs50/- per mensem)

My present proposal only involves the giving effect once more to the sanction already accorded . The only other charge to be considered is the remuneration of the --- substitutes to be employed in the place of those detailed for instruction in the school , viz , Rs:20/- per mensem for the Officiators of Inspectors and Jamedars and an allowance of Rs:2/- each for those of Daffedars . For this purpose Government were pleased to sanction Rs:7920/- in their Proceedings No: 93I6-25/J.F. 53-92 dated 2Ist December I893 and No: I4I53-4/J.I723 dated I5th July I899. Out of this amount , Rs: 4076/- remains unspent as will be seen from the figures furnished by the Comptroller for the budget of I90I - I902 . If the Government be pleased to sanction the utilisation of this amount , I expect it will cover the charges for the next 2 years , after which period application will be made if necessary for sanction of a further amount.It will thus be seen that the Head Quarter Police Training School has its establish-ment sanctioned permanently and that no additional cost is involved either in reopening or continuing it.Provision for the above charges has been made in the budget for the next year and the cost during the current year may be met out of Police Savings,as an omission to provide the amount in the budget was allowed to occur without the specific orders of Government.

2. Adverting to para 2 of the docket under reference I enclose herein a statement showing the number of ------ Inspectors,Jamedars and Daffedars in the force who re and are capable of being benefitted by such training.

3. Referring to the question contained in para your docket under reference,I have to inform you that while the training in the District Police Schools is confined to recruits and men in service in the constabulary so as to make them eligible for enlistment and better--- members of the lower ranks of the force,that in the Head Quarter Police School is of a higher standard not only in the instruction of the Codes but also practical work,with a view to make them more efficient and capable officers to be placed in charge of stations and entrusted with the onerous duties devolving on them for investigating cases, preventing crime and maintaining discipline in the force and lastly for the prosecution of cases . The syllabus of studies in the District police School does not extend beyond a rudimentary knowledge of the cognizable offences

in the Indian penal Code , of the Criminal proceedure

Code , and of the Evidence Act , whereas in the Head --

Quarter Police School the instruction imparted is of a more advanced and varied nature comprising besides a fair ----

knowledge in the Criminal Laws also practical work ,

Medical Jurisprudence , Ambulance , Photography , Surveying

ing , &c . In short , the one is intended for the training of the lower ranks and the other of the upper --- subordinates of the Police Service .

EAD—

(1) Government Proceedings No. 3146-7—J. F. 53-92, dated 25th August 1892, approving the proposals made by the Inspector General of Police in Mysore, for training candidates r the upper ranks of the subordinate Police service.

(2) Letter No. 6, dated 5th December 1902, from the Inspector General of Police in Mysore, the Secretary to the Government of Mysore, General and Revenue Departments.

Adverting to this office letter No. 463—29 of the 29th July 1902, stating that the Head-arter Police Training School at Bangalore was abolished from 1st January 1902, owing to e expiry of two years for which period it was sanctioned, I have the honor to state that the overnment were pleased to accord sanction in their Proceedings No. 10182-3—J. 1001 of the h March 1900, to the opening of the class for two terms with a view to all the deserving men ready in the Force being trained. It was accordingly opened and courses of training extend-g over eight months were given in the years 1900 and 1901, and the school was closed by e Officiating Inspector General of Police, Mr. B. K. Venkatavaradaiengar, from 1st January 02, who submitted a proposal for the abolition of all the existing District Police Schools and e opening of a Central Police School at Bangalore instead. The Government were not how-er disposed to introduce any change in respect of the matter. (Vide Government Proceed-gs No. 639—J. 67 of the 14th July 1902.)

2. It will be seen from the entire correspondence on the subject that the Head-quarter lice Training School with an establishment of 1 Inspector and 2 Drill Instructors, was in istence from the year 1877, and was intended as a permanent institution for the training of cruits and latterly of deserving Police officers already in the Force. Further, the Government re pleased to order the disbursement of full pay of such officers while under training in the hool and the payment of allowances to the substitutes employed in their places at the rate of s. 20 each per mensem, and provided for this purpose a sum of Rs. 7,920 (vide Government roceedings No. 9816-25—J. F. 53-92 of the 21st December 1893, as also No. 14153-4—J. 1723 the 15th July 1899). Out of this amount a sum of Rs. 4,204-12-6 remained unspent at e beginning of the year 1900, as already reported in this office letter No. 2781—234 of the 0th January 1900.

3. The concession afforded by Government regarding the remaining Inspectors and Jama-rs being given the benefit of training in the school has not been fully availed of, as owing the exigencies of service and the prevalence of plague in some parts of the Province, the thdrawal of Police officers from taluks was not considered desirable. The amount however ill remains unspent and may well be utilized hereafter for the purpose. The entertainment men passed from the Training School will improve the working of the Police to a great tent, and it is of utmost importance that recruits who are qualified by education respecta-lity of character and who are of good physique, should be selected and trained for employ-ent in the subordinate grades. I propose, therefore to re-open the school with effect from e 10th January 1903, and the course will, as usual, extend over a period of eight months. spectors and Jamadars and, I may add, Dafadars, as are young and efficient and who are still maining untrained, will be selected as usual for undergoing training in the school, and such of e duly qualified recurits will also be admitted into the school and charged a fee of Rs. 2 ch per mensem, and the number of such admissions will thus be limited. I shall make a rther report as to the officers and recruits admitted into the school and submit proposals for e sanction to the extra cost of substitutes being met from the unspent balance referred to ove.

4. Among those who are to be trained in future for advancement in the Police Depart-ent I have advisedly included the Dafadars who bear the brunt of the work, as will be seen om the last Administration Report which shows that nearly 41 per cent of the cases have en investigated by them. They are virtually, though not in name, the Station House Officers id unless we secure the services of a better class of men than what we have at present in the rce, it is hopeless to achieve better results in the prevention and detection of crime. I would erefore request that substitutes for those who may be withdrawn from the districts for being ained in the school may be granted an allowance of Rs. 2 per mensem. This arrangement, approved, will go a great way to improve the existing staff of Dafadars, who will in future nsist of only men who have passed out of the school and will prevent indifferent class of ople from being appointed to this grade.

5. Under these circumstances, I beg that the opening of the next term of the Training hool may kindly be sanctioned from the 10th January 1903, as I consider that by allowing e present state of inaction as regards the training of men in the Force, we will open ourselves the charge of having adopted a retrograde policy, whilst in the neighbouring British Territories so much agitation is made to improve the status of both the officers and subordinate staff. It is time that Government by a distinct order, sets at rest once for all and clear the doubt, if any, as regards the permanency of the institution.

6. I am collecting statistics as regards the number of Inspectors and Jamadars who are in service and who had received training in the school and the same will be communicated to Government in due ccurse.

(3) Letter No. 5484—324, dated 26th March 1903, from the same Officer submitting certain additional particulars.

With reference to your docket No. J. 1127, dated 6th February 1903, requesting to be furnished with some additional particulars in connection with my proposal to re-open the Head quarter Police Training School, I have the honor to state in reply, seriatim to the above, that the re-opening of the school does not entail any extra cost beyond what Government have been pleased already to sanction. The subjoined statement shows the establishment sanctioned by Government for the Head-quarter Police School at different periods, and these sanctions have not been revoked :—

Details of Establishment.	Pay per mensem.	No. and date of Government Proceedings sanctioning the establishment.
	Rs.
1 Inspector on Rs. 75+15.	90	7395-6—J. 849, dated 28th December 1897.
1 Drill Instructor ...	16
1 Survey Instructor ...	80	Camp No. 372-3, " dated 16th June " 189 (perhaps this amount is susceptible of being reduced to Rs. 50 per mensem).
1 Photographer ..	100 (per term)

My present proposal only involves the giving effect once more to the sanction already accorded. The only other charge to be considered is the remuneration of the substitutes to be employed in the place of those detailed for instruction in the school, viz., Rs. 20 per mensem for the officiators of Inspectors and Jamadars and an allowance of Rs. 2 each for those of Dafadars. For this purpose Government were pleased to sanction Rs. 7,920 in their Proceedings No. 9816-25—J. F. 53-92, dated 21st December 1893, and No. 14153-4—J. 1723, dated 15th July 1899. Out of this amount, Rs. 4,076 remains unspent as will be seen from the figures furnished by the Comptroller for the budget of 1901-02. If the Government be pleased to sanction the utilisation of this amount, I expect it will cover the charges for the next two years, after which period application will be made, if necessary, for sanction of a further amount. It will thus be seen that the Head-quarter Police Training School has its establishment sanctioned permanently and that no additional cost is involved either in re-opening or continuing it. Provision for the above charges has been made in the budget for the next year and the cost during the current year may be met out of Police savings, as an omission to provide the amount in the budget was allowed to occur without the specific orders of Government.

2. Adverting to para 2 of the docket under reference, I enclose herein a statement showing the number of Inspectors, Jamadars and Dafadars in the Force who require and are capable of being benefited by such training.

3. Referring to the question contained in para 3 of your docket under reference, I have to inform you that while the training in the District Police School is confined to recruits and men in service in the constabulary so as to make them eligible for enlistment and better members of the lower ranks of the Force, that in the Head-quarter Police School is of a higher standard not only in the instruction of the Codes but also practical work, with a view to make them more efficient and capable officers to be placed in charge of stations and entrusted with the onerous duties devolving on them for investigating cases, preventing crime and maintaining discipline in the Force, and lastly for the prosecution of cases. The syllabus of studies in the District Police School does not extend beyond a rudimentary knowledge of the cognizable offences in the Indian Penal Code, of the Criminal Procedure Code, and of the Evidence Act, whereas in the Head-quarter Police School the instruction imparted is of a more advanced and varied nature comprising, besides a fair knowledge in the Criminal Laws, also practical work, Medical Jurisprudence, Ambulance, Photography, Surveying, etc. In short, the one is intended for the training of the lower ranks, and the other of the upper subordinates of the Police service,
